

Bone Densitometry Preparation Instructions:

- Do not take calcium supplements for 24 hours prior to your exam.
- Wear comfortable clothing without metal in the waist and hip area.
- If you have recently undergone a barium study or oral contrast for CT, you should wait 7 days before having this study.

- Bring your prescription and insurance card.
- Bring all previous imaging/radiology studies (that were not done at RAI) relating to your current study.

For additional Information please call (609) 585-8800